

2018 Krewe Babalu Poster Contest:

First Place Prize: $200.00 to the winner

Rules for Contest:

The Theme will be A Salute to the Little Easy (Mardi Gras type theme with Galveston and what it has to offer) The artwork can be any media of art, watercolor, acrylic, pastels pencil, charcoal or digital (must be in Color). All artwork must be mounted on a hard backing. Art can be on canvas, linen, panel, paper, board or similar flat format. Include a description of the media used as well as a brief (100 words or less) bio of the artist to be submitted with artwork. The contest will from August 28, 2017 to October 2, 2017. All artwork will have to be submitted by no later than October 2, 2017 at 5:00 p.m. The contest is open to all high schools and Colleges and amateur artists in Galveston County. The art will become the property of Krewe Babalu. Each entry should be at least 18 X 24 in size, vertical or horizontal. Each participant will have to sign an art waiver that they understand the art becomes the property of Krewe Babalu. The entire Krewe will make the final decision on the artwork that is selected by casting a ballot for their favorite. The original first prize artwork will be framed and presented at the poster unveiling along with the posters to be giving out.

Announcement of Winner

The submissions will be voted on at our October meeting and the winner will be announced at our November meeting. Also the winner will be featured in the Applause section of the Galveston Daily News. It will have a photo of the winner and a few words about the winner.